We are proud to be a traditional family run pub and we have been serving food and drink in England's smallest city since 1986.

The Britannia Inn is an old Victorian pub built c.1830. It has been a public house since the late 1800's.

We strive to offer quality food and drink at sensible prices. Whether you come for a meal with family, or a game of skittles with friends we will endeavour to make you welcome!

Thank you for taking time to read our introduction. We hope you enjoy our home cooking and refreshing drinks

Happy eating, drinking and mingling with friends - old & new!

Karen and Rob (your hosts)
